

Life Health – Contract Medical Advisor – Canada

Gen Re is a member of the Berkshire Hathaway family of companies and a world-class global reinsurer specializing in the Life/Health and Property/Casualty markets. Gen Re is represented by an International and U.S. network of more than 46 offices in 23 countries. Gen Re has a financial strength rating of AA+ from Standard and Poor's, the highest in the industry.

Gen Re has made the decision to enter the life and health reinsurance business in the Canadian marketplace through its Canada Branch. This role combines the excitement of a start-up opportunity with the full backing and support of one of the world's foremost Reinsurance companies.

Gen Re is looking for a Medical Advisor on a contractual basis for our Life Health Canadian market based in our Toronto, Ontario office.

Responsibilities include:

- Assessment of underwriting and facultative and substandard risks in life and disability insurance.
- Claims assessment
- Medical advice to actuarial and pricing teams
- Presentation and training measures for clients
- Cooperation with the other medical offices in the sector
- Cooperation with the R&D team in reviewing and assisting with the underwriting manual

Experience/Qualifications:

- Medical qualification, preferably with specialist qualification or interest.
- Work experience in insurance or reinsurance
- Strong communication skills
- Team player
- Analytical and critical thinking skills
- French and English language fluency is required.

Please send your resume to Linda Dalesio in Human Resources: ldalesio@genre.com