TO RESERVE YOUR ROOM: Call Central Reservations at 800-361-8234 and refer to our group, the “Canadian Life Insurance Medical Officers Association (CLIMOA) 73rd Annual Scientific Meeting”.

A limited number of hotel rooms have been secured for our group at a special rate of $229 CAD for a Standard Room.

Our group rate will only be available until Friday, April 13, 2018, or until our group block is sold out, whichever comes first. After that point, any new reservation will be subject to availability at the daily rate applicable at the time of reservation.

The rate is per room, per night, single or double occupancy. The rate is quoted in Canadian dollars and is subject to a 3.5% Lodging Tax. This amount is subject to a 5% Goods and Services Tax (GST) and a 9.975% Provincial Sales Tax (QST). Taxes and fees may change without notice.

Cancellation or modification of a reservation must be made by 3:00 p.m. local time on the day prior to arrival; otherwise the cost of one night will be charged.

Individuals are responsible for their own room, tax and incidental charges, and all charges must be paid upon check-out.

Check-in begins at 4:00 p.m.; check-out time is 11:00 a.m.

The Hyatt Regency Montréal is a 4-star downtown hotel that has been recognized for its contemporary design. It offers 595 stylish guestrooms and suites with premier views of downtown Montréal, luxurious Hyatt Grand Beds®, large flat-screen TV, in-room laptop-sized electronic safe, mini-fridge, hairdryer, coffeemaker, iron and ironing board, and spacious work area. Take a swim in the inviting indoor pool, relax in the steam room or sauna, schedule a soothing spa treatment, or work out in the 24-hour StayFit™ fitness facility. Hotel amenities also include Saveur offering breakfast, SIX Resto Lounge offering dinner and/or cocktails, room service, laundry and dry cleaning, valet and self-parking, concierge and business centre. Complimentary Wi-Fi is included in all guestrooms and public areas.

The hotel is ideally situated in the heart of Montréal's compact downtown core, a bustling mix of business, shopping, food, culture and entertainment that hums 24/7. Crammed with creativity, the city's most popular art museums are located here, including the renowned Montréal Museum of Fine Arts, Canada's oldest art institution and the city's largest museum, and the Musée d'art contemporain de Montréal across the street, Canada's largest and most important museum dedicated exclusively to contemporary art. The area is also home to the city's Quartier des spectacles, a vibrant entertainment district featuring over 80 cultural venues including the prestigious Place des Arts across the street presenting world-class music, dance and theatre. Its prime downtown location is conveniently connected to the Complexe Desjardins shopping centre with over 100 boutiques and restaurants, and within easy walking distance to some of the best Montréal has to offer: unique local shops, art galleries, museums, trendy restaurants, entertainment and performing arts, shopping on Sainte-Catherine Street, as well as Old Montréal, Chinatown, the famous underground city, and much more.

TRAVEL

Montréal–Pierre Elliott Trudeau International Airport (Montréal-Trudeau) is located just 20 minutes from downtown Montréal, and serves 27 destinations in Canada and 23 in the United States. There is a flat rate of $40 for a taxi to downtown hotels, tip not included.

If rail travel is preferred, VIA Rail and AMTRAK bring visitors into the heart of the city each day. The Hyatt Regency Montréal is a short taxi ride from the train station.

If you are driving, the island of Montréal is easily accessed by many roads and expressways, including the Trans-Canada Highway. Depending on your point of origin, you may take one of the major bridges – Champlain, Jacques-Cartier or Victoria – or the Louis-Hippolyte Lafontaine bridge tunnel to head downtown. The Hyatt Regency Montréal is connected to the largest underground parking garage in the city. Overnight valet parking which includes in and out privileges is $32 daily.

ABOUT MONTRÉAL

Montréal is the largest city in the province of Québec, a bilingual metropolis in North America, and one of the largest French-speaking cities in the world after Paris. Its cosmopolitan reputation is enviable: colonized by the French and later the British, today, the confluence of cultures from around the globe continues to leave its mark on Montréal's multifaceted and spirited character and its legendary joie de vivre. From the cobblestone streets of the old city to the dynamic and modern downtown, Montréal seduces visitors with a harmonious pairing of the historic and the new, a striking union of European charm and North American attitude. Enjoy shopping for urban fashion downtown on lively Sainte-Catherine Street; meandering through French colonial history while stopping at delightful restaurants, art galleries and boutiques in wonderfully preserved Old Montréal; lovely sunset views of the St. Lawrence River in the Old Port while witnessing the commercial and industrial history that shaped the city; or stunning city views while strolling in nature on the trails of beautifully landscaped Mount Royal Park, a mountain in the heart of the city. Exquisite architecture, creative arts, world-class entertainment, glorious food, vibrant culture and a nightlife that never stops – Montréal has it all!
